

TRILLIUM AWAKENING™

CONSCIOUSNESS, EMBODIMENT & MUTUALITY

Newsletter – January 2018 – Issue #12

Gratitude and 2018

At the start of a new year it's traditional to take stock of where we are and where we'd like to be. Appreciating where we are necessarily includes giving thanks for all the gifts support and influences, both elevating and challenging, seen and unseen, we've received during the past year.

By invoking this appreciation for what is already in our lives we move into the Heart and into the presence of being that is Gratitude itself.

An unconditional gratitude that springs from a knowing that we are all of life.

The Self bowing down to Itself over and over through all forms and meters. This respect and service to that which we already are will then provide the essential foundation to all that we are becoming.

Cielle, Sanji, and David Bishop have been offering virtual sittings since September 2017. Their sittings are on Sundays at 12:30 pm Central US, a time that works for Trillium participants in US, Canada, UK and EU.

These sittings are scheduled for every 3 weeks. Six have already been offered and many more will follow. Each sitting includes a short presentation or guided exercise elucidating one of the key elements of our Trillium teaching. There is also time during these sittings where each participant who wants to, may share personally about their lives in a atmosphere of mutual trust and honoring.

Their next sitting will be Sunday January 28. For details click here.
